Angeleno Days: An Arab American Writer on Family, Place, and Politics takes the memoir and personal essay to rare heights. Orfalea is a deeply human writer who reveals not only what it means to be human in America now, but also what it will take to remain human in the days to come. These essays soar, confound, reveal, and strike at our senses and sensibilities, forcing us to think in new ways and to feel new things.

"Some of the best Arab American writing ever assembled."
